Jade's Sun is in Aquarius ♒

The Sun represents the core essence and primary driver of the individual.

Jade is a unique little individual. She is a restless baby, craving human company. Baby Jade does not necessarily want to be held close; rather she wants to be able to watch what is going on in her little life. She likes plenty of action and interaction. Parents may worry about the fretful nature of baby Jade; however, they soon notice the difference once young Jade can crawl and walk, exploring the world for herself. Jade is an independent child enjoying the company of other children and adults. It is unlikely that young Jade holds on to her parents' apron strings. Jade is more likely to have her parents chasing her. Of course this largely depends on whether or not Jade is extroverted or introverted. She is likely to be an extroverted child exploring the world inside and outside the home.

The only sure thing about Jade is that she is unpredictable. To say that Jade does not respond well to authority is an understatement. Reason and distractions work better than strict application of rules. Jade can be a little rebel, either with full-blown tantrums or with quiet stubborn refusal to conform. Childcare and kindergarten are likely to provide a welcome change of environment for young Jade. School is also likely to be a new source of intellectual stimulation, although there may be initial problems in settling down to a routine. Any form of schooling that encourages individual and creative expression is better suited to Jade.

Jade's Moon is in Leo ♌

The Moon represents the instinctual response and the way to nurture your little one.
Nurturing the Moon enables positive development of the Sun.

Young Jade is a joyful and happy baby thriving on her parents' love and affection. As a baby and a young child Jade loves to be the centre of the family's attention. As the first or only child Jade may be able to enjoy her parents' undivided attention, blossoming under the rays of their joy of discovery. However, if Jade has siblings, the parents' attention will have to be shared. In this case she may feel a need to fight to be noticed resulting in some dramatic sulks and attention-seeking activities. Jade needs a firm but loving hand, encouraging her self-esteem while teaching the art of considering others' feelings and needs. Jade does not respond well to criticism, but thrives on praise. Jade needs to feel loved and appreciated. Having some time out may prove to be the best method of disciplining Jade, because she soon pines to be social again.

On the whole Jade is a fun-loving, affectionate and charming child enjoying a smooth, if somewhat dramatic, path through childhood. Toys, which may hold some appeal, include games, dress-ups, play cosmetics, mirrors, play jewellery, playful toy animals and dolls, which can be dressed in different outfits for different fun activities.

Jade's Ascendant is in Pisces ♷

The Ascendant will be the most visible part of your little ones personality during the early years.

Jade is likely to wait until she feels comfortable before pursuing her purpose. Pisces is a Mutable sign denoting versatility, flexibility, adaptability, sensitivity, restlessness and indecision. However, it is also a Water sign indicating that feelings play a strong role in Jade's ability to achieve her goals.

Jade has strong feelings. Even as a baby Jade wants lots of comfort and close contact with her parents, particularly her mother. As a baby Jade benefits from a quiet and peaceful environment because she is particularly sensitive. As a child Jade is impressionable and needs to be nurtured in a positive environment. As a result of gentle encouragement Jade's imagination will flourish. She may even show some artistic talents at a young age. Jade is an affectionate, kind and helpful child and needs careful handling. She will benefit from activities such as reading, communing with nature, and listening to music.
